WOOTEN was received on trial, elected to Deacons Order under the Seminary Rule to be ordained elsewhere, and was placed in the studies of the first year.

THE JOURNAL OF 1930 was found to be in error in that it placed the names of HENRY JONES and BEVERLY E. STATON as Probationers. The Journal of 1929 showed them to have been admitted into full membership at the Winston Conference. They were passed in character, were graduated from the Course of Study and elected to Elders Orders. CHARLES G. BYNUM was continued on trial in the studies of the first year. DOCK A. HILL was continued on trial and advanced to the studies of the second year. JOHN H. FOYE and S. H. PRESSLEY were passed in character and continued on trial in the studies of the third year.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES: Pursuant to a previous order, the hour of 10:00 had arrived, when the ministerial delegates to the General Conference were to be elected. The Bar of the Conference was cleared. Bishop Smith gave full instructions as to the method of procedure.

The tellers were named as follows: R. T. Weatherby, Chairman; S. A. Peeler, P. J. Cook, A. H. Newsome, N. M. Black, J. E. Brower. The Secretary of the Conference was requested to make the record for the tellers. The first ballot was taken.

A second ballot for a second delegate was immediately taken.

W. M. Wells passed in character and reported the work of the Laurinburg District.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE: At 11:00, pursuant to the program arrangement, H. L. Ashe announced Hymn No. 713. R. W. Winchester led in prayer. W. M. Wells read the 105th Psalm, and Hymn No. 177 was sung. J. E. Brower presented Bishop H. Lester Smith, who delivered the Thanksgiving sermon from Rev. 15: 2, 3, 4 verses. The close attention and response from every one in the audience proved the searching power of the sermon to move to new resolution and higher living. A Thanksgiving offering of $50 was received and turned over to the pastor of the church to be used locally.

The result of the second ballot was announced as follows: Ballots cast, 78; defective, 1; ballots counted, 77; necessary to a choice, 39. No one having received the necessary 39 votes, there was no election.

The Conference waived its motion of adjournment and moved to take a third ballot for election of a second delegate.

The report of ballot for Reserve Delegates was as follows: Ballots cast, 48; necessary to a choice, 25; G M. Phelps, with 35 votes, and W. M. Wells with 29 votes, were declared elected.

R. T. Weatherby, rising to a question of personal privilege, presented some Boy Scouts who had caught an o'possum for the Bishop's benefit and had walked from Greensboro to High Point to greet Bishop Smith and be presented to the Conference.

Bishop Smith, in receiving these Boy Scouts, related some of the experiences of his life as a boy, and with boys since he became Bishop. He strongly urged the pastors to give point and leadership to boy life.

R. C. SHARPE was elected to Deacons Order as a local preacher. The name of S. E. DUNHAM, a supply pastor, was presented by the Committee on Conference Relations for reception into full membership and Elders Orders. Bishop Smith ruled that no supply pastor who had not the educational qualifications could be admitted to an Annual Conference. The name of S. E. Dunham was withdrawn and his District Superintendent was allowed to use him as a Supply.

Bishop Smith further ruled that no person, whatever his orders, and from whatever his church, could be used as a Supply unless he were a member of the M. E. Church, and that his orders were noneffective for use in our connection unless they had been recognized by a Methodist Episcopal Conference.

Under QUESTION 14, the name of J. A. CHERRY was presented. Bishop Smith ruled that a man left without appointment to attend school must be in attendance at school. Action in the case was deferred for Cabinet consideration.

The name of B. W. STEWARD, applying for reception on trial, was withdrawn for lack of recommendation to support the application. He was disallowed the privilege of being used as a Supply.

Responding to QUESTION 15, the Conference answered that the character of each preacher was examined in open Conference.

When QUESTION 16 was called, James A. Baxter was announced transferred to the Atlanta Conference, the transaction having taken place November 10, 1930.

By motion the Conference requested that a special Committee of five be appointed to cooperate with R. T. Weatherby in the State work of Unemployment Relief.

In the noon day DEVOTIONAL HOUR Hymn No. 19 was sung. Following the prayer, Bishop Smith read the Scripture from St. Matthew 16. He delivered a forceful message on the passage read.

Dr. A. P. Shaw, Editor of THE SOUTHWESTERN EDITION OF THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, addressed the Conference with much fervor and favor relative to the support of the paper.

The BENNETT QUARTETTE honored the Conference with a musical number.

The LAY DELEGATES to the General Conference, President David D. Jones and Prof. J. A. McRae, were presented for remarks.

From the organization of Methodism in America, the work in North Carolina was continued in Virginia and afterwards in the Virginia and South Carolina Conferences. In the year 1836, the General Conference set up in North Carolina. Its first session opened as a part of the Virginia Conference, but when it adjourned there were two Conferences.

Facts from the first ninety sessions are gleaned from the General Minutes and from the Conference Journal for those years, which is now in custody of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the Conference of December 4, 1844, there were 19,495 white members and 3,990 colored. Without consulting the wisdom of the latter, nearly the whole membership became part of a new church, organized in May, 1845, and called the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Some of the colored members entered the A. M. E. Church, some the Colored M. E. Church of America, but thousands turned gladly to the bosom of the old Methodist Episcopal Church as it returned to the State after the Civil War.

Between the years 1844, when the Church was separated over the slave question, and 1865, when at the close of the War the M. E. Church returned to shepherd its scattering flock in North Carolina, there was no session of the North Carolina Conference.

From the North Carolina Conference the Blue Ridge was formed with twelve preachers, 2,839 members and probationers, and 41 church edifices.
